

Contents

CHAPTER		PAGE
	PART I
	BUSINESS EDUCATION IN CHALLENGING TIMES
1	A Business Education Perspective:
	Past . . . Present . . . Future	1
	J. CURTIS HALL
	Virginia Commonwealth University
	Richmond, Virginia
2	Econometric Perspectives at Home and Abroad	12
	BETTY J. BROWN and GEORGE MUNDRAKE
	Ball State University
	Muncie, Indiana
3	Educational Standards and Reform:
	Input . . . Revise . . . Output	23
	MICHAEL G. CURRAN, JR.
	New Jersey State Department of Education
	Trenton, New Jersey
	DOLORES CAPRARO GIOFFRE
	Montclair State College
	Upper Montclair, New Jersey
	PART II
	ACCOMPLISHING CHANGE IN BUSINESS EDUCATION
4	Knowledge Systems Workers in the 1990's and Beyond	32
	MARIANNE J. DONOFRIO
	Central Connecticut State University
	New Britain, Connecticut
5	Developing Business Skills Needed in the 1990's	43
	WILMA JEAN ALEXANDER
	Illinois State University
	Normal, Illinois
	LONNIE ECHTERNACHT
	University of Missouri-Columbia
	Columbia, Missouri

6	Developing Basic Business Competency	55
	KENNETH W. BROWN University of Houston Houston, Texas
	CHARLES R. HOPKINS University of Minnesota St. Paul, Minnesota
7	Business Curriculum Models from Professional Organizations	69
	W. CLARK FORD Middle Tennessee State University Murfreesboro, Tennessee
	C. STEVEN HUNT Western Kentucky University Bowling Green, Kentucky
	ROY W. HEDRICK Stephen F. Austin State University Nacogdoches, Texas
8	Exemplary Business Education Programs in the United States
	Section A: Technology—Program Course Approaches (Connecticut)	79
	JOAN S. BRIGGAMAN Connecticut State Department of Education Middletown, Connecticut
	Section B: An International Business Program (Ohio)	82
	CHARLOTTE COOMER Ohio State Department of Education Columbus, Ohio
	Section C: Quality—A Continuous Improvement Process (Arizona)	84
	JANET M. GANDY Arizona State Department of Education Phoenix, Arizona
	Section D: An Approach to Entrepreneurship Training (Arkansas)	86
	TOMMIE BUTLER Arkansas State Department of Education Little Rock, Arkansas
	Section E: Providing for Adult Learners (Oklahoma)	89
	BETTY C. FRY Central State University Edmond, Oklahoma

9	Reaching High Risk Populations Through Business Education	92
	DONNA HOLMQUIST University of Nebraska at Omaha Omaha, Nebraska
	BIRDIE H. HOLDER University of Nebraska-Lincoln Lincoln, Nebraska
	DAVID E. GRAY University of Missouri-Columbia Columbia, Missouri
10	Internationalizing Education for and about Business	105
	WANDA BLOCKHUS San Jose State University San Jose, California

PART III FOUNDATIONS OF A SOLID FUTURE FOR BUSINESS EDUCATION

11	Research for Shaping the Future of Business Education	116
	JUDITH J. LAMBRECHT University of Minnesota St. Paul, Minnesota
	JOLENE D. SCRIVEN Northern Illinois University DeKalb, Illinois
12	Exercising Political Savvy: A Routine Workout for Every Educator	131
	RUTH E. BROOKS J. Everett Light Career Center Indianapolis, Indiana
	ROBERT J. THOMPSON Foothill College (Retired) Los Altos Hills, California
13	Interning, Co-oping, and Programming Alternatives: Successful Partnerships and Funding	142
	JOYCE CATON Hazelwood School District Florissant, Missouri
	CONNIE BUCK Louisiana State Department of Education Baton Rouge, Louisiana

14	Business Education: A Number One Priority Within the General Curriculum	151
	DONALD L. MOORE Coronado High School Colorado Springs, Colorado
	RAENELLE HANES Pikes Peak Community College Colorado Springs, Colorado
15	Trends and Challenges Facing the Goal-Oriented Professional	160
	DOROTHY A. NEAL Sacopec Valley High School Cornish, Maine
	G.W. MAXWELL San Jose State University San Jose, California
16	Business Education in the 1990s— A Window of Opportunity	166
	WILLARD R. DAGGETT and ROBERT A. JAFFARIAN New York State Education Department Albany, New York

